

‘Come and ask’ Sessions with Ruth, the Kite Family Support Worker (FSW)

Do you need help with sleep routines, fussy eaters, transfer to secondary school, challenging behaviour or any other situation with your child? This is a great chance to have an informal chat with Ruth.

All you need to do is phone Ruth on 07718651277 and book yourself onto a 1:1 for a ‘come and ask’ session on Monday 6th November 2017. Ruth is taking bookings from 9.00am until 3.00pm.

During this session you will have the opportunity to share what the issue is and look together to find some answers or options!

Please note the ‘come and ask’ sessions will be held across each Kite schools on varying times and dates which will allow an opportunity for all Kite parents to have access to this service. Information on further dates and venues will be sent out via ParentMail.

If you would like further information about how The Kite FSW can help you then please ring Ruth Masih on 07718651277 or speak to your child’s class teacher.
